Item 5.02. Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

On June 7, 2022, David Rudnitsky notified Yext, Inc. (the “Company”) of his intention to resign from his position as Chief Revenue Officer of the Company effective immediately. Mr. Distelburger will assist the Company in a transitional role until September 30, 2022. Effective immediately, Brian Distelburger, the Company’s current Chief Revenue Officer and head of the Company’s international and partner sales, will serve as interim Chief Revenue Officer, managing both North America and International Revenue groups, while the Company conducts a search for a permanent replacement.

In connection with his separation, Mr. Rudnitsky will become entitled to receive (i) accelerated vesting of 87,525 restricted stock units from his outstanding and unvested grants; (ii) continued severance payments equal to 6 months of his annual base salary; (iii) a pro-rated portion of his target annual bonus, (iv) a pro-rated portion of his special retention cash bonus previously disclosed in the Company’s Current Report on Form 8-K filed on March 8, 2022; and (v) payments for 6 months of COBRA premiums. As part of signing his separation agreement, Mr. Rudnitsky agrees that his outstanding stock options from his 2017 grant will immediately forfeit.
